

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY SERENDIPITY HOLIDAYS LIMITED t/a NZ4U2U NZ4U2U.com

It is our intention that everyone in the Company is committed to best practice and continuous improvement in Health and Safety Management. To achieve this, we work in partnership with our employees, contractors, visitors and customers to implement and monitor the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992 and associated regulations, codes of practice and workplace safety guidelines.

Every employee and contractor is responsible for following safe work practices, reporting injuries and accidents and contributing to health and safety management.

All customers are instructed that they are responsible for the caravan they hire and must comply with all New Zealand road rules and regulations.

All Customers are asked to complete a condition report and checklist prior to using the vehicle.

All Customers are urged to use extra towing mirrors to improve visibility.
